

Join three dinosaurs on their adventure to find their friends and family in this interactive storytelling workshop. Meet Terry Triceratops, Al Allosaurus and Steph Stegosaurus and uncover some of their amazing fossils!

Your pupils will effectively contribute in an interactive storytelling session where they will join three dinosaurs on their quest to find their friends and family after a violent volcanic eruption destroys their home! They will discover what made these dinosaurs so magnificent 150 - 65 million years ago and uncover Al the Allosaurus's skull! During this workshop pupils will get the opportunity to hold handling specimens including lava, dinosaur teeth, claws and bones and even real dinosaur dung! They will be enthused and have a motivation for learning while using rhyme and actions to enhance enjoyment and develop knowledge and understanding.

This workshop enables pupils to:

Extend and enrich vocabulary through listening, talking and watching

Develop curiosity and understanding of the environment

Develop as a scientifically-literate citizen with a life long interest in the sciences

Establish a foundation for more advanced learning

Curriculum for Excellence Experiences and Outcomes:

Literacy and English – Listening and talking

I enjoy exploring events and characters in stories and other texts, sharing my thoughts in different ways. LIT 0-01c

As I listen and talk in different situations, I am learning to take turns and am developing my awareness of when to talk and when to listen. LIT 0-02a / ENG 0-03a

I listen or watch for useful or interesting information and I use this to make choices or learn new things. LIT 0-04a

To help me understand stories and other texts, I ask questions and link what I am learning with what I already know. LIT 0-07a / LIT 0-16a / ENG 0-17a
